JOHNSON & ASSOCIATES, INC.
Security Management Consultants

March 2007

Now Open!

San Diego, CA - Johnson & Associates, a Nationwide Security Management and Consulting Firm, has added a new location to its existing offices around the country.

With offices already in Los Angeles, Las Vegas and Washington, DC, the firm is proud to launch their newest location in Houston, TX.

Johnson & Associates specializes in providing professional security services, consulting, risk assessments and security plans for conventions, trade shows, corporate galas and additional high-profile events.

The firm will now have five (5) locations including their corporate headquarters in San Diego, CA.

Aaron B. Johnson, who is a Certified Event Security Specialist, stated that Houston was selected as the firm's next venture because of its booming economy, diverse population, the large number of Resorts & Hotels and a top-rated Convention Center that brings in hundreds of Trade Shows, Meetings and Conferences annually.

Mr. Johnson further indicated the overall Event Hospitality Industry and the number of professional sports team venues makes Houston an intriguing venture for the company.

The firm plans on opening up an office in Atlanta, GA in 2008.
