July 2007

San Diego, CA - Johnson & Associates, a Nationwide Security Management and Consulting Firm, has added a new location to its existing offices around the country.

Johnson & Associates specializes in providing professional security services, consulting, risk assessments and security plans for conventions, trade shows, corporate galas and additional high-profile events.

With offices already in Houston, Los Angeles, Las Vegas and Washington, DC, the firm is proud to launch their newest location in Phoenix, AZ.

Phoenix is one of the fastest growing cities in the country and is the nation's 5th largest city. It is home to a number of professional sports franchises and attracts 12 million visitors annually from all over the world. With the expansion of the Convention Center, Phoenix will offer more than 2 million square feet, as well as more than 52,000 hotel rooms and more than 200 golf courses.

Company Founder Aaron B. Johnson, said the firm plans on opening an office in Atlanta, GA in 2008!
